

FACE THE NATION

Guests:

Guests:

Guests:

GUESTS:

Rep. Dennis Hastert (R., Illinois) (1)
Rep. Richard Gephardt (D., Missouri) (2)
William Bennett, Enpower America (3)

CBS TELEVISION NETWORK
PUBLIC AFFAIRS BROADCASTS
SEPTEMBER 1999 - p. 2 of 6

60 MINUTES

- 09/05/99     "Family Affair" Sante Kimes and her son Kenneth have been accused of everything from shoplifting, credit card fraud, to arson and murder, most recently of Irene Silverman, a wealthy widow whose body has not yet been found. Included is an interview with the Kimes who claim that they have been framed by the police, treated unfairly in court and convicted by the press. (C: Steve Kroft - P: Richard Greenberg, Victoria Gordon) (OAD: 04/11/99)
"Where There's Smoke"- in order to curb underage smoking Florida has enacted a new law which makes it illegal for those under 18 to smoke, buy, or even possess cigarettes. Critics claim that by making smoking a criminal offense they might well be making it more attractive to teenagers. (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Shari Finklestein) (OAD: 02/21/99)
"The Diva Next Door"- an interview with opera star Renee Fleming. (C: Morley Safer - P: Steven Reiner) (OAD: 04/18/99)
Andy Rooney Topic: "Wealth of Information" - old people forgetting things (OAD: 03/21/99)
- 09/12/99     "KGB Secrets"- an interview with Vasili Mitrokhin, a former decorated KGB agent who defected to England and authored The Sword and The Shield: The Mitrokhin Archive and The Secret History of The KGB, a book revealing the lengths the Kremlin went to try to sabotage the U.S. during the cold war. Includes an interview with Professor Christopher Andrew, Cambridge University who was chosen by British intelligence to work with Mitrokhin (C: Mike Wallace - P: Robert Anderson)
"Brother Rick Curry"- Rick Curry, a 56-year-old Jesuit Brother, was born without a right forearm. Curry, a college professor, renowned baker and best-selling cookbook author, is founder of the National Theater Workshop of the Handicapped, the only known theater school solely for the physically handicapped. (C: Steve Kroft - P: L. Franklin Devine) (OAD: 03/14/99)
"Harry Potter"- an interview with British writer Joanne Rowling whose children's novels have been responsible for her transformation from a poor single mother to the world's most successful author. (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Rome Hartman, Lizzie Weinreb)
Andy Rooney Topic: "Nuts"- what you find in a can labelled mixed nuts (OAD: 12/28/97)
- 09/19/99     "KIPP"- five years ago David Levin and Michael Feinberg, two young Houston, Texas teachers, founded KIPP (the Knowledge Is Power Program). The public school program for grades five through eight aims to prove that with hard work and the right kind of discipline, children from poor minority neighborhoods can perform as well as middle-school students in more affluent areas. (C: Mike Wallace - P: Paul Gallagher)
"Frank McCourt"- interview with Frank McCourt, Pulitzer Prize-winning author of Angela's Ashes, a memoir about his childhood in Limerick, Ireland. (C: Ed Bradley - P: Ruth Streeter)
"Playing Ball With The KGB"- one of the names emerging in the recent probe into Russian money laundering is Alexandre Konanykhine, a young banker who amassed a considerable fortune due to his KGB connections and who sought safety in the U.S., turning FBI informant. Konanykhine has been granted political asylum in this country because he fears retaliation at the hands of his former compatriots. (C: Morley Safer - P: Peter Klein)
Andy Rooney Topic: "Summer News Events" - what happened during the summer

CBS TELEVISION NETWORK
PUBLIC AFFAIRS BROADCASTS
SEPTEMBER 1999 - P. 4 of 6

48 HOURS (continued)

- 09/13/99 (MONDAY MYSTERIES) "A Time To Kill"- 17-year-old Sterling Barber was accused of murdering Gerald Douglas Wyatt, a church deacon. The Carnesville, Georgia teenager claimed that he acted in self-defense because Wyatt, known to be a predator, was trying to molest him. A jury found Barber guilty of murder and he was sentenced to life in prison. With the help of Ed Tolley, his new attorney who argued an appeal, Barber's conviction was overturned and after more than three years in prison, he awaits a new trial during which Wyatt's history as a child molester will be introduced in court. (C: Richard Schlesinger - Sr. P: Jim Murphy - P: Katie Boyle, Abra Potkin) (OAD: 02/11/99)
- 09/14/99 (TUESDAY ADVENTURES) "Race to Freedom"- profiles an American World War II soldier who was lost in the Pacific Ocean for five weeks. The former Olympic runner subsequently became a prisoner of war and was held captive for 43 days by the Japanese who subjected him to torture. Now 82, Louis Zamperini who runs a camp in California for troubled youngsters and devotes a lot of time to public speaking, talks about his unbelievable experience. (C: Bob Simon - P: Draggan Mihailovich)
- 09/16/99 "Nature's Fury"- a special live edition of 48 HOURS charts the course of Hurricane Floyd and its effects on the Atlantic coastline. Includes an interview with Josh Wurman, a meteorologist who with his research team, goes to the scenes of hurricanes to do scientific studies. (C: Eric Engberg, Russ Mitchell, Harold Dow, Bernard Goldberg, Jim Axelrod, Sharyl Attkisson, Jose Diaz-Balart, Brian Norcross, Susan Spencer, Elizabeth Kaledin - Sr. P: Katie Boyle, Reid Collins Jr., Peter Schweitzer)
"One Man's Fury"- an update on a gunman's rampage at a Baptist church in Ft. Worth, Texas, that left seven people dead, plus the gunman. (C: Richard Schlesinger)
- 09/23/99 "Mr. Wonderful"- nicknamed "Mr. Wonderful" by one of his victims, Matt Mathews of Southern California was everything but to the women who lost both their hearts and bank accounts to the prolific con artist. Married at least 11 times, Mathews is believed to have scammed hundreds of people and has served three jail terms for fraud since 1977. In a year-long investigation, 48 HOURS tracks down the women ensnared by Mathews and follows them as Mathews is brought to trial facing his most serious charges to date. (C: Susan Spencer - Sr. P: Reid Collins Jr., Peter Schweitzer - P: Clare Friedland)
- 09/30/99 "Torn By Hate"- 48 HOURS takes viewers across the country into the lives of those involved in hate based on race or religion. Includes a report on: Bufford Furrow, a gunman who opened fire in a camp for pre-schoolers at a Jewish community center in Los Angeles. Also includes portions of a previous broadcast about Bonnie Jouhari, U.S. government fair housing advocate and mother of a biracial daughter, who was forced to leave her home; the Rev. Jeff Berry, leader of a division of the Ku Klux Klan; Brian Sanders, a Pennsylvania prison guard whose grandfather was killed by the Klan (C: Troy Roberts - Sr. P: Al Briganti - P: Katherine Davis, Maurice Murad, Josh Yager) (OAD: 10/22/98)

CBS TELEVISION NETWORK
PUBLIC AFFAIRS BROADCASTS
SEPTEMBER 1999 - p. 5 of 6

60 MINUTES II

- 09/07/99 "Journey Into Madness"- a report on Russell Weston Jr., a schizophrenic man who stormed the U.S. Capitol last summer, killing two police officers. Includes a videotaped interview of Westin by Dr. Resnick, a psychiatrist. Westin is at the center of a controversy over whether he should be forced to take anti-psychotic medication that would enable him to stand trial. (C: Scott Pelley - P: Nancy Duffy, Bill Owens)
- "Gold Digger"- an interview with Orthodox Rabbi Joseph Gutnick, one of the biggest owners of gold in the world. Gutnick is unique in that, although he hired geologists, the man whose advice led him to his gold mine discoveries was the late Lubavitch Rabbi Menachem Schneerson, his spiritual adviser. (C: Jana Wendt - P: Randall Joyce)
- "Oprah"- followup to "Oprah" (OAD: 60 MINUTES 12/14/86), an interview with the talk show host Oprah Winfrey. The followup is an interview with Ms. Winfrey, now an actress, television producer and philanthropist. (C: Mike Wallace - P: Deborah DeLuca Sheh) (OAD: 03/17/99)
- "Uncommon Sense"- how people's names get on mailing lists (C: Jimmy Tingle)
- 09/07/99 "The Lost Children"- from 1947 to 1967 the British government, in collaboration with churches and charities, came up with a secret plan to relieve the problem of overcrowded children's homes. Thousands of the children were shipped to Australia where, they were told, they would be adopted. Rather than being placed with families, the children were taken to institutions run by the Christian Brothers where they were used as laborers, given inadequate food, and subjected to physical and sexual abuse. Now adults, many of the children have discovered that they were not really orphans but had families who were not able to support them. Margaret Humphreys, an English social worker has founded, The Child Migrant Trust to help them find their parents and their past. (C: Bob Simon - P: Draggan Mihallovich) (OAD: 03/24/99)
- 09/14/99 "The Fugitive"- James Charles Kopp, the anti-abortion protestor allegedly responsible for the death of Dr. Bernard Slepian last year, is still at liberty. James Fitzgerald of the FBI's psychological profile unit has explored Kopp's psyche to learn what turned him from a peaceful protestor into an alleged serial criminal who is likely to kill again. (C: Jim Stewart - P: Andrew Wolff)
- "The Music Man"- an interview with composer Frank Wildhorn who, this year, had three musicals running on Broadway at the same time. (C: Vicki Mabrey - P: Rob Wallace)
- "Murder By The Book"- followup to "Murder By The Book" (OAD: 60 MINUTES 03/02/97), an interview with the three sisters of Mildred Horne, who along with her handicapped son and his nurse, was killed by James Perry who followed instructions in Hit Man, a how-to manual on murder. The followup is a report on the recent out-of-court settlement under which Peder Lund, publisher of Hit Man, agreed to take it off the market and to pay the victim's sisters $5 million. (C: Mike Wallace - P: Tom Anderson, Margaret Bailey) (OAD: 05/26/99)
- Update: "Journey Into Madness" OAD: 09/07/99

CBS TELEVISION NETWORK
PUBLIC AFFAIRS BROADCASTS
SEPTEMBER 1999 - p. 6 of 6

60 MINUTES II (continued)

- 09/21/99 "America's Secret War"- an interview with former U.S. Marine Major Gil Macklin who trained Copes Commandos, the highly specialized group who, since 1992, have been at the front line of the ongoing campaign to end the Colombian drug cartel. The U.S. is on the verge of spending another $1 billion to fight an army of old-line Marxist guerrillas who have gone into the drug trade. (C: Dan Rather - P: George Crile, Necraj Khenilani, Paul Bellinger)
"Wake Up Call"- last month Buford Furrow was arrested for opening fire in a Los Angeles children's day camp and later killing a postman in what he described as a wake-up call to kill Jews and non-whites. It has since been discovered that authorities in Washington, Furrow's home state, knew that he was contemplating mass murder before the L.A. shootings but failed to keep him in custody. (C: Scott Pelley - P: David Schneider)
"Donna And Ricardo"- followup to "Donna And Ricardo" (OAD: 60 MINUTES) and "Donna And Ricardo's Baby" (OAD: 60 MINUTES 04/29/90), reports about Donna and Ricardo Thornton, a retarded interracial couple who managed to cope with life outside an institution and to raise a child. The followup consists of a visit with the Thorntons and son Ricky, now a 12-year-old. (C: Mike Wallace - P: Deborah De Luca Sheh)
"Uncommon Sense"- the evolution debate (C: Jimmy Tingle)
- 09/28/99 "Killing Time"- an interview with Shawn Berry, the third defendant in the dragging death of a black man in Jasper, Texas. Bill King and Russell Brewer, the other two defendants, were tried and sentenced to death. Berry, who faces a similar sentence, claims that he was an unwilling participant in the crime and that fear kept him from trying to stop the murder or going to the police after it occurred. (C: Dan Rather - P: Mary Mapes)
"The Idol Maker"- report on Lou Pearlman, 45-year-old native New Yorker who has been responsible for creating teen sensations including N'Sync and the Backstreet Boys. (C: Vicki Mabrey - P: Robert Klein)
"Uncommon Sense"- Jimmy Tingle asks if we do enough for missing children. (C: Jimmy Tingle)

* * * *